MODERN LUXURY SPOTLIGHT

Lisa Povlow Keller Williams Real Estate

Associate Broker
"Makes it Happen"

Lisa Povlow "Makes it Happen." As a long-time resident, realtor, developer and entrepreneur with over 25 years of experience, Povlow genuinely cares about each of her clients and represents them throughout Bucks County and the Philadelphia region, including Montgomery County.

Before she launched her real estate career, Povlow studied acting and psychology at Syracuse University. To this day, she holds a Screen Actors Guild card and appeared in "Unsolved Mysteries" in the '90s before achieving her real estate license in 1997.

Ranked in the top 1% of agents in Bucks County, she is going all in on taking the Lisa Povlow Team to the next level. For Povlow, her clients' needs come first and she is intentional about making sure their voices are heard.

"My marketing is exceptional and my clients get more with me than they would anywhere else," Povlow says. "I do high-end lifestyle packages, videos and social media and have a writer and assistants on staff to execute our marketing strategies. I work closely with stagers and contractors to set up the property correctly so our clients receive top dollar."

Povlow brings intense focus and resourcefulness to every transaction. She thinks outside of the box and is able to come up with great strategies that make all the difference, giving her sellers—who are receiving record prices for their properties—a seemingly distinct advantage.

"I can work in any market," Povlow says. "I adapt and guide people to success. My team is always available and we're going to get the results you desire."
